DG Dave Saunders

Welcome fellow lions to DG Dave's fortnightly Blog,

DIABETES AWARENESS

Lions International have been working hard on their Diabetes Campaign globally. Now there is a push from Diabetes New Zealand for clubs and individuals to hold screenings for their fellow Lions, also this test can be offered to the public when a club has a community project on. There would have to be some training by individuals on the administering the test. The test which involves a simple prick on the finger a small amount of blood is gathered on a test strip, then analyzed in a machine this whole process only takes approximately 30 seconds, the test is not full proof but will alert the individual to contact their doctor for further investigation. This is another tool for Lions to consider for the promotion of Diabetes Awareness in their communities.

CLUB VISITATIONS

I have recently visited a number of clubs in Southland and Central Otago, every club has been very supportive of the DG visit. All the clubs are very healthy in their membership and financial support for LCI AND LCIF. Plus all the clubs are looking to increase their membership (that's great). I find it personally a great pleasure to meet our fellow lions in 202F. There is always new and interesting perspectives learned in Lionism as you travel around.

Regards

GLASS TABLE

During 2018 The Lions Club of Invercargill Club was seeking a very unique significant community activity/event to recognise the Centenary of Lions Clubs International. We wanted something practicable that the community of Invercargill and Southland could enjoy, and at the same time record for posterity, the 100 years of Lions Clubs International worldwide.

Our Lions Club agreed to have manufactured and installed, a glass table to be situated beside one of the seats in Queens Park – Invercargill’s wonderful scenic Park and Gardens – which is visited by hundreds if not thousands of people daily.

Negotiations began with the Invercargill City Council Parks and Reserves Department to gain approval to install the celebration table.

After nearly a year of negotiating approval came through, the Council installed the concrete plinth and the table installed.

We are very pleased with the final outcome and have received many accolades from our community who use this table when enjoying their lunch or relaxation in our world-class park.

But now

Some lowlife ratbag or ratbags have apparently taken to the glass table with a hammer, possibly a sledge-hammer, over the weekend 13/14 October 2019 and split the 50mm table top in half, plus damaged many of the glass rings in the upstand. The table is irreparable. The top is virtually bullet-proof so it would have taken a lot of pounding to fracture it like it has been.

The Invercargill City Council Parks and Reserves Division have salvaged the broken remains of this beautiful table, which has only been in place a number of months, and are reporting the matter to the Police. We have received dozens if not hundreds of accolades from people seeing the table and they appreciated the gesture of our Lion Club to supply this table. Even today when I visited the Park for my midday walk (and found the table gone) people, some who were visitors to the town, came up to me asking where the table was as they had been told by friends to visit the Park and view the wonderful gesture of Lions .

We might seek up a Givealittle page to see if we can raise enough funds to replace it.

One has to ask WHY!!!!

Your Service Drives Our Success

Dear Lions,

The lives of 1.4 million people worldwide will be changed through recently approved LCIF grants.

The Board of Trustees approved 98 Lion grant projects, a total of US$6,153,390.

I want to give you just a few examples of what Lions will accomplish with this support from LCIF.

Did you know Lions are updating vital equipment for restoring sight through corneal transplants, continuing the fight against preventable blindness?

That we are feeding less fortunate neighbors by creating a food bank?

Furnishing a guesthouse for patients and families battling childhood cancer?

Providing clean water and sanitation systems in an area where people drink contaminated water?

These are real-life projects happening in areas all across the world. More children are gaining access to LCIF's social and emotional learning curriculum, Lions Quest, which is reducing drug and alcohol abuse in children. LCIF's SightFirst program is continuing to work with The Carter Center to eliminate trachoma and river blindness in areas of the world where the diseases are prevalent.

This incredible work from Lions is a result of support from LCIF and donations from you!

These projects represent a mere fraction of the tremendous, lasting impact Lions are creating for people, for communities, for the world.

With grant funding from LCIF, these Lions are achieving even more than they could on their own.

We are repairing more houses, protecting more children, and feeding more hungry people.

How does LCIF generate the funds to support these efforts? Donations.

So, to those who have given in support of LCIF and Campaign 100, thank you!

And for those who have not yet donated, please contribute what you can. Together, we are changing the world.

In friendship,

Gudrun Yngvadottir,

Chairperson,

Back in September Lion Doug and Julie helped the Leo's plant trees on the banks of the Waihopai. Thank you Doug for getting stuck in and helping the girls, unfortunately I didn't arrive until just after 11, (had to do grandma duty at the netball courts, but it was a final so there was no excuse not to attend). I did get there in time to take a couple of photos and plant a couple of trees. It was well organised by both the girls and Environment Southland. There were 11 girls, a dad, Doug and Julie .

Lion Kevin Wall QSO has been awarded a Certificate of Appreciation by Lions Club International President for establishing the NZ Liver Transplant Unit/Service over 20 years ago which he received on 19th of August 2019 from PDG Wendy Goodwin at our August tea meeting. Our guest speaker was Danielle Ralph. She travelled to Uganda to support the founder of the “Fountain of Peace” organisation. This group does some great work improving the lives of orphans in a small village in Uganda.

It's impossible to hum while holding your nose.

You just tested it, didn't you?

Normally, when you hum, the air is able to escape through your nose to create the sound, and of course, it can't do that when you're holding it shut.

Thanks Cromwell

Cromwell - Lion Tales

The Cromwell Lions club recently recognised a long serving member of the club and the community. The photo shows Lion Richard Gardner receiving a Melvin Jones fellowship from 2nd Vice District Governor Pam Fiveash and Past District Governor Andy Andrews. Richard was selected by Cromwell Lions immediate past president Glenn Vaughan for his unselfish contribution to the communities he has lived in "Richard has worked for his community both as a Lion and outside of Lions. He's one of the stalwarts who looks after others, more than himself." Richard's impressive list of achievements include

A Lion of 39 years

President of Tuatapere Lions twice, secretary for 7 years

Fully involved with the Cromwell community firewood scheme

Active member in the food caravans

Cromwell Presbyterian support buddy to a young boy from childhood to young adult

Board member of the Tuatapere Community Board for 3 terms

Former President and Life member of the Waiau community Theatre

Church Treasurer, Secretary for the Back Waters Music Festival (8 years)

The award was as much an award for what Richard has done for the community outside of Lions as well as what he has done within Lions. Our communities are much richer for having active participants such as Richard.

Plans are well underway for the joint Lions/Rotary St John house build and we were lucky enough to see the nearly finalised plans for the project at our last board meeting. It sounds as though the local business community is right behind this project and it will be a real winner for not only St Johns but the lucky people who purchase the property.

Whilst Lions have been quieter over the winter months, this has given members the time and space to clean up and completely refurbish our Den. There have been a small number of individuals (who wish to remain anonymous) who have unselfishly completed a long overdue tidy-up of our Den. On behalf of Cromwell Lions a bit thank you to the following businesses who generously assisted with this project. Please take a bow and a well earned pat on the back

Guthrie Bowron Ltd

Cromwell Building Contractors

Mike May Plumbing

Stratco Ltd

R Redpath Electrical

R&R Hiab Services

With all the work now done, Lions are able for the first time in a couple of decades to actually hold meetings in the Den.

The Lions recycling schemes are also well underway.

It is with much pride that we congratulate the team at Cromwell Pharmacy who have collected well over 200 pairs of glasses following our article and advertisement recently. The glasses are being prepared to assist those in the Pacific Islands with poor sight.

We are collecting used engine batteries and will shortly have signs up at the Transfer station and at Great Southern on Hughes Crescent as drop off locations. Andy Andrews is also available to collect any old batteries you have, just call him on 021 842 346.

We again have the assistance of Cromwell Pharmacy to act as a collection point for aluminium bottle tops and the aluminium necks off the bottles. Further information on how and when to do this will be supplied shortly. But start collecting the tops/neckes from your wine and soft drink bottles now.

We are also looking into the ability to recycle the batteries from hearing aids

Our twice yearly, Mystery Garage sale at Labour Weekend is being planned as you read this. If you are looking to have a spring clean, why not try and make a bit of cash at the same time. We will be holding the Mystery Garage Sale on Sunday 27th October starting at 9am. Watch out for further details and information on how to register.

Recent activities include, which have all been in conjunction with our friends in Rotary

Co-ordinating the meet the candidates presentation at the Presbyterian church

Holding the first meeting of the St Johns House build to enlist community participation

Spending a sunny Saturday morning helping with the Lake side clean up, with special attention paid to the Lions Garden in Old Cromwell Town

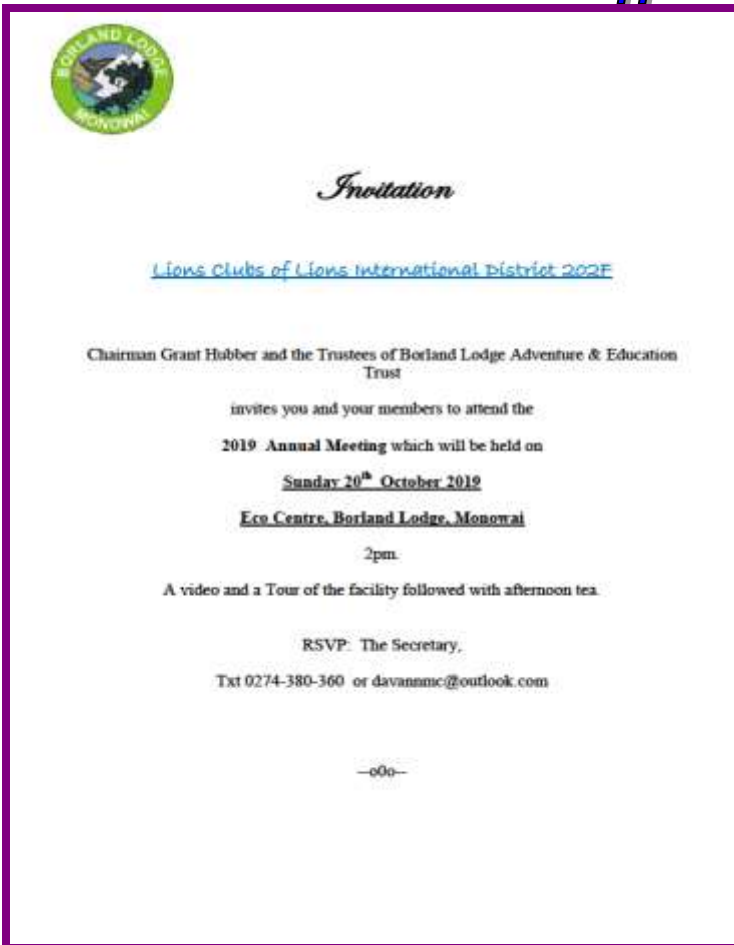

Upcoming projects include

Acting as marshalls and car parking for the Spring Challenge on Saturday 28th September

Cleaning out the caravans for the spring/summer season

Cromwell I Lake Dunstan

Like any southern cheese rolls, there has to be an element of competition. Ann Saunders was gathering samples as she visited clubs with DG Dave. She then ran a taste test - which our rolls won!

I was asked at a social function during the weekend whether Lions clubs operate in any country other than New Zealand. Lions is in fact the largest service organisation in the world. We are a cog in a mighty machine. And to quote our International President Dr. Jung-Yui Choi, "Each of our 1.4 million members is different. These very differences are what makes us strong. They make us great. They make us Lions."

The weeks coming up start to feel like lead up to the end-of-year: World Service Day follows shortly after the tea meeting, with us baking and delivering to our elderly. Lions special recipe Christmas cakes can be ordered, so suggest these to your friends and neighbours as a way to keep Christmas simple and support our community through Lions. And remember the Zone Challenge with Wanaka and Queenstown on 10th November - we'll be looking for a team to defend the little Lion!

Te Anau (Congratulations for your 55th Birthday of your Club)

Changeable weather as usual Firstly I would like to thank the members who helped plant the fruit trees at Te Anau and Mararoa primary schools, although I gather a few more members would have been good. However well done and great publicity with good coverage in the Advocate. Next project is the Steptoe Auction at Labour weekend. We are going to continue for another year and see what the response is. We have also been asked to help set up for Flower show but you will have already had an email about that.

*Our club will be 55years old in October. Special mention of our remaining founder member Tom Roberts, well done Tom.
Project money – Proceeds from Hay Sale, ½ to Hospice & ½ to Youth, finalize at the Board meeting. Tree planting at Mararoa & Te Anau Primary Schools. Took crowbars there were lots of stones. Very successful. Planted 3 apples, 2 each pears, plums, figs and fejoas. Thanks to members who helped. The 2021 DG Sue Fleury would like to come to the November meeting to discuss the 2021 convention.

Winton

Lions Club of Winton recommend the purchase of one changing table at a cost of $750.00 for the Central Southland Swimming Pool Inc Beef + Lamb NZ: This idea was welcomed by the meeting. It was suggested that the local Young Farmers Club be approached for ideas of support. An informal BBQ for local farmers was suggested. Blue Ribbon Dinner: Alistair McLees reported that 72 tickets were sold for this event, with the Club purchasing another 4 tickets for guests. The auction raised $2800, the raffles raised $693, with $200 donations. The profit was $3743.00 to be donated to the Prostate Cancer Foundation. Graeme Anderson: has become aware that there is a trend for people to leave marked stones on walking tracks. These stones are then left at the next track the walkers visit with some stones travelling overseas. Lion Graeme mooted that stones with the Winton Lions Club logo be left at the Winton walking track and he will further investigate this idea. IHC Golf: Allan Wilson reports that organization is well underway. 9 teams have entered to date. All arrangements and sponsors are in place.

Heart of a lion

Kerrie Watchworth

"A real shock, and a real honour" was how a Queenstown Wakatipu Lions club member described being awarded the first ever Lifetime Membership award.

Judith Thompson, 83, was one of the founding members of the Queenstown Wakatipu Lions club back in 1990.

At the club's recent annual changeover dinner and volunteer recognition night she was presented with the club's highest award, Life Membership in the Wakatipu Lions Club.

Thompson says she originally had no intention of joining the club as her youngest son had just finished school and "I had been on enough committees."

The organiser of the first meeting asked if she'd help with the baking and was so surprised at how many turned up she joined soon after.

"I thought I knew everyone in town but a lot of farmers from Invercargill were setting up and moving to Queenstown and I found I only knew about four out of the 54 women who came to the first meeting.

"So I thought it would be a good way to meet them and do good things for the community."

In 1992 the Lions started to join the Queenstown Wakatipu Lions club and since then Thompson has held many committee positions on the executive board, worked on the committee for sight, health and hearing and introduced many new members to the club.

She says raising money was easier in the early days of the club because it was "a smaller community, and everyone joined in".

She recalled how for 20 years the club ran a "very successful" BBQ on the town waterfront.

"But then OSH (Occupational Safety and Health, the predecessor to WorkSafe) came in and we had to have a fire extinguisher in case we went on fire.

"We were right beside the lake and we had to have running water to wash our hands even though we wore rubber gloves. Everything became so ridiculous we pulled out.

"Now we try to have a BBQ at either The Warehouse or Miter 30 once a month," she said.

During her 30 years with Queenstown Wakatipu Lions club the members have raised money for the new St John's ambulance building in Frankton, supported Diabetes NZ, put defibrillators into local schools and also fundraised for the Salvation Army and Jiggaws.

Thompson's already received a 25-year Chevron from Lions Club International (LCI), a Lloyd Morgan Lions Charitable Trust Fellowship Award.

Gore Hokonui

Well, the "Sales Table" went well. I am so looking forward to the next one in November for all the lovely baking. Well done everyone! Some members were lucky enough to spend time with IPDG Wendy Goodwin and PDG Alice McDonald, Leadership Coordinators, who gave us lots of awesome ideas. On the 11th October we have the Pink Ribbon collection at Countdown. We have also received word from the Blind Foundation who would like our help collecting at New World on 18th October. A list for the Truffle orders will be handed out at the October Meeting. (Remember truffle making on Saturday 23rd November.)

Sandra noticed the following winning letter in the Women's Weekly.

TO GIVE FEELS GOOD:

I was very interested to read your article, It's great to give a helping hand (23.09.19) I am a member of a Lioness Club in the South Island it's part of the Lions International organization (my husband is a Lion) and I recommend it to anyone. Ladies are now welcome to join Lions, as well as the Lionesses if there is a group in the area. There are five such groups in the South Island, and several more in the North Island, I believe. Often the male and female clubs will join together for larger fundraising events and social occasions. There are also Leo Clubs for younger people. Not only do we fundraise, we volunteer in various ways, from delivering Meals on Wheels and assisting at Residential Homes to building children's playgrounds. Age is no barrier either – our oldest member is 87! We are not committed to giving huge amounts of time, just whatever we can manage. In the 10 years my husband and I have been members we have made many friends and I have to say, its a wonderful organization to belong to.

Wyndham Pioneer

Guest speaker Jane Laurie spoke at the September meeting on her work in Uganda with the Fountain of Peace Baking for the Wyndham Community Rest Home was the Townies turn in September. Our Lions club is coming 40 years old in March next year .

Wanaka & Districts

We are also planning a tidy up at the Den & painting it. Also, we will start building a small storage shed for the cavalcade gear etc.

Thanks also to our bike riding group who are planning social trips further afield.

Members are working on the BBQ trailer drainage tanks, lights & cover to keep the storage trailer out of the weather.

Firewood team are planning our next wood chop/split working bee.

Guest Speakers Steve Jones from NZ Fire Service and Tony Williams from Hawea VFB thanked us again for our donation before giving us a sobering talk on the 'Dragon who lives next door', or more correctly the massive Alpine Fault line that dissects the South Island West Coast of NZ.

Winton

The first of our major fundraising events is behind us. Another most enjoyable and well organised event, raising $3700 for the Blue Ribbon Prostate Cancer Appeal. Again, an amazing effort by the Blue Ribbon committee to put it all together and pull off yet another great fundraiser. Last month we enjoyed our own John "Chub" McHugh as our dinner speaker. Billed as an "All-round good bloke and recently retired celebrity", John did certainly not disappoint. It was a great trip down memory lane and enjoyable to see many of our members faces light up in recognition of some of the places and people mentioned. Very shortly we can look forward to the next big fundraiser, The IHC Golf Tournament. And again, that Committee is full on busy, working to make that another success. For our next Dinner meeting we have Kerry Phillips from Winton Country Jewel as our guest speaker. At the end of her talk we may know why you have to fly all the way to Antwerp Belgium to buy diamonds.

Riversdale

Berty has been given the go-ahead to build the book shelter.

The Deep Cove Hostel needs spring cleaning twice a year. Will discuss at the next Tea Meeting.

Jill will report back with costings, - whether we have to pay to get there or not.

The Slinky Lamb Collection is now under way

...IT'S GREAT TO BE A LIONS CLUB MEMBER ...
The ball is squarely at YOUR feet
So let's go in and score
To make our Club the strongest yet
As we need members more.

Thanks Heather
